

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, David J. Law will complete 40 years of delivering news and potentially life-saving information to the citizens in and around the Watertown area on June 10, 2011; and,

Whereas, David has become the "news voice" of Watertown; and,

Whereas, Despite being involved in a number of tense and highly emotional stories over the past 40 years, David is still respected as being a neutral voice, and is liked by all who know him; and,

Whereas, David is one of only a small number of people to ever win both of the South Dakota Broadcaster's Association top awards — the Tom Brokaw Award for excellence in journalism, and the South Dakota Broadcaster of the Year Award for community service; and,

Whereas, David's excellence in broadcasting is exceeded only by his obvious success as a husband, father and grandfather; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 10, 2011, as in South Dakota.

DAVID LAW DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Second Day of June in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eleven.

Dennis Daugaard

Dennis Daugaard, Governor

Attest:

Jason M. Gant

Jason M. Gant, Secretary of State